This worksheet is a recommended schedule to complete your bachelor's degree in 4 years. Every UNC student must meet the following requirements in order to graduate with a bachelor's degree: earn a minimum of 120 semester credit hours; possess a minimum of a 2.00 cumulative grade point average; have at least 40 credit hours in courses designated as Liberal Arts Core; meet all degree requirements in the student's major field of study. Each major and/or emphasis may have additional requirements necessary for graduation. Students must consult with their major advisor to receive information on any additional graduation requirements.

Notes

- 1 The Criminal Justice degree requires a grade of "C" or better (C- is not acceptable) for all courses (regardless of prefix) counting toward the major.
- 2 No more than three semester credit hours of internship (including field experience, practicum, etc.) from a prefix other than CRJ may be used toward the major.

The field of Criminal Justice is interdisciplinary in nature and draws from theories and research methodologies from disciplines such as sociology, psychology, political science, and public administration. Graduates will have a comprehensive knowledge of the criminal justice field.
