This worksheet is a recommended schedule to complete your bachelor’s degree in 4 years. Every UNC student must meet the following requirements in order to graduate with a bachelor’s degree: earn a minimum of 120 semester credit hours; possess a minimum of a 2.00 cumulative grade point average; have at least 40 credit hours in courses designated as Liberal Arts Core; meet all degree requirements in the student’s major field of study. Each major and/or emphasis may have additional requirements necessary for graduation. Students must consult with their major advisor to receive information on any additional graduation requirements

Notes

- 1 All work to be counted toward the degree must be beyond the first year level.
- 2 Unless otherwise noted, all courses with a GER prefix are conducted in German.
- 3 Students must demonstrate competency in certain areas of language activity: oral and written proficiency in foreign language, ability to apply one's knowledge of the culture to appropriate situations in a foreign language environment.
- 4 To graduate with a Foreign Language degree, students must have a 2.5 GPA in those courses that count toward the major and were taken at UNC.
- 5 Opportunity for study abroad (junior year recommended).
- 6 Students must pass the ACTFL Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) with a rating in the Intermediate range in order to graduate. See your advisor for more information.

The German Liberal Arts Major stresses communicative language learning that recognizes language acquisition as a dynamic process of discovery in which students develop the ability to use the German language for specific communication purposes. This skill-using approach is obtained through content-based instruction at all levels and is complemented by authentic audio visual and textual materials. Optional participation in extracurricular programs and activities that include immersion weekends and conversation circle (Stammtisch) further enhance functional proficiency.
