Notes

1. All work to be counted toward the degree must be beyond the first year level.
2. Unless otherwise noted, all courses with a FR prefix are conducted in French.
3. Students must demonstrate competency in certain areas of language activity: oral or written proficiency in foreign language, ability to apply one's knowledge of the culture to appropriate situations in a foreign language environment.
4. To graduate with a Foreign Language degree, students must have a 2.5 GPA in those courses that count toward the major and were taken at UNC.
5. Opportunity for study abroad junior year.
6. All PTEP courses require an on-line application one semester in advance www.unco.edu/teach
7. In order to obtain approval for a student teaching assignment, a French major must have obtained a grade of 3.0 or better in FL 440 and FL 341, completed the FR 422 Teaching and Learning Practicum, passed the PRAXIS or PLACE exam, and have successfully passed the official ACTFL Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) with a rating of Advanced-Low or above.

Completion of the French teaching major prepares the student for State of Colorado Licensure to teach in elementary and secondary schools.

The French Secondary Teaching Major stresses communicative language learning that recognizes language acquisition as a dynamic process of discovery in which students develop the ability to use the French language for specific communication purposes. This skill-using approach is obtained through content-based instruction at all levels and is complemented by authentic audio visual and textual materials. Optional participation in extracurricular programs and activities that include immersion weekends and conversation circle (Bavardage) further enhance functional proficiency.
