 - 6. Panel discussions, speakers, yoga classes, etc.

iii. Questions:

- 1. Q: Have you reached out to the counseling center or psych services to ensure that they are not planning an event already?
 - a. A: Yes, they are not planning to do an event similar to this.
- 2. Q: Do we want to put Student Senate's name on this project?
 - a. A: He would like Senate to partner with him on this project; collaboration
- 3. Q: Will there be fees to attend this event?
 - a. A: Students will not be charged for these events
- 4. Q: Will Senate be funding this project?
 - a. A: Josh would like funding from Senate
- 5. Q: What would be a great way to learn more about the event or see it advertised?
 - a. A: Posters, email, word of mouth, student newspaper, CPE, counseling & psychological center, WGCE, ASAP, collaboration with oncampus entities
- 6. Q: Will this proposal be shared electronically with Senate?
 - a. A: Yes, it will be shared via email.
- 7. Q: Who will be spearheading this campaign?
 - a. A: Josh is wondering if Senate would like to support this event. Would like to reach out to other orgs but would like a team of Senators to help execute the event
- 8. Q: Where will funding be coming from?

a. A: Michael Moss is willing to take money out of his budget to help fund campaign; also looking for sponsors; Malaika Michel-Fuller, Tim Hernandez, and Langston Mayo are willing to contribute to the campaign from their budgets

iv. Discussion:

- 1. Student Athletes would like to get involved
- 2. Tammy Ortiz: language should be inclusive, we should be mindful of trigger warnings; make sure to reduce stigma toward mental health
- 3. Malaika Michel-Fuller: bring in experts for panel discussions because of training and extensive background knowledge
- 4. Jaycien Derrera: We need to be aware that mental health extends beyond depression & anxiety; be mindful of how event is marketed
- 5. Bella Aspromonte: be conscientious of not going out of our scope and not being harmful toward student populations
- 6. Sheridan Snapp: Student Affairs committee is interested and has had a conversation about organizing the event
- 7. Katie Haynes: have counselors on call for students who need support or would like to talk to a professional on site
- 8. Eric Goering: wants to make sure that we have enough time to set up this event.
 - a. Josh: wants event to happen 2nd week of October, but would be willing to push event back a week for sufficient planning time
- 9. Karen Gonzalez: reminded Senate that the current discussion is to decide if Senate would potentially support the event; planning can wait for time's sake and logistics can be hashed out later
- 10. Shane Borah: what does Senate support look like? Are we fully committed enough to fund it? To plan it?
- v. Jasmine Sandoval-Gutierrez moved to vote in support of event; Michael Moss seconded.

- 1. Karen Gonzalez is amending the motion to say that we will vote to support or not support the idea, then come back later with a plan.
 - a. 18 voted in favor of support; 1 abstention
- c. University College Legislation- Shane Borah
 - i. University College is not in the bylaws
 - ii. Proposed amendment
 - iii. Questions:
 - 1. Jaycien Dererra: Are we planning to amend this to require councilors to have a major within the college?
 - 2. Karen Gonzalez- How will program affiliation be defined?
 - a. Shane Borah: Stated that amendment prevents students who work for UC but do not have a major or minor to represent UC in Senate

iv. Discussion:

- 1. Shane Borah moves to bring this motion to the table; Eric Goering seconded
- 2. Mallory Gibson proposed colleges to caucus for 3 minutes
- 3. Mallory: PVA would like to propose an amendment:
 - a. Program affiliation will be determined on a case by case basis between the Election Commissioner & Student Senate Advisor
 - b. Why: the honors program is an exception to the major/minor rule; people running for Senate positions within this college must be educationally affiliated with University College
 - c. Mallory mentions that proposed PVA amendment will define what "program affiliation" means for University College representation; prevents future potential problems that come with this specific language

Shane Borah moves to table the motion and amendment to next business meeting; Mallory seconds it. This will provide time to provide further clarification.

- d. Inclusive Language Amendment- Mallory Gibson
 - i. Noticed that all language uses binary pronouns & rewrote potential new legislation to include gender-neutral language
