

Designed for Specific Majors and Exploring Students

Some sections of UNIV 101 have been customized for specific majors or for exploring (undeclared) students, often involving professors and staff from those departments. For example:

- Psychology and exploring students will participate in educational planning sessions led by PSYCH and Major Exploration professional advising staff.

For the “Any Majors” sections, your professor will get to know you and the other students and provide specific opportunities tied to your major.

UNIVERSITY 101 PROGRAM

At UNC, we understand that college is an exciting, yet critical time full of opportunity; therefore, we are fully committed to helping you transition to UNC quickly and effectively.

What Is It?

- An academic program designed to help students successfully navigate the expectations of college.
- Each course is small in size, highly interactive, and designed with an interdisciplinary focus on reading, writing, critical thinking, and communication skills.
- It is a 3-credit course that helps fulfill the 31 credits required of the Liberal Arts Curriculum (LAC) for all students.

Why Should I Choose University 101?

- National studies over the past 40 years suggest that students who participate in first year seminars like UNIV 101 tend to earn higher grades and continue in college until graduation at higher rates than those who do not participate.
- Every UNIV 101 section has a Class Leader (CL). Class Leaders are second-year students who have been selected to provide support in and out of the classroom. CLs provide opportunities to help you quickly make friends and build strong support systems to help you succeed.

How Do I Join?

At new student orientation you will be able to register for UNIV 101 along with your other classes. Please review the course listing at unco.edu/university-101/registration/fall.
